Dear

Hon'ble Prime Minister chaired the sixth meeting of National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA) at New Delhi on 18th October, 2018 to review the activities of NDMA.

2. During discussion in the meeting, Hon'ble Prime Minister emphasized on the need for better coordination among stake-holders and desired that the following steps be taken immediately for the schools:

- (a) Fire fighters should give school children fire safety lectures and conduct demonstration exercises and give lectures.
- (b) In Districts, essay competition and a quiz competition should be conducted for children. Essays in Hindi and English should be introduced on the topic of "Disaster Management".
- (c) The selection of sites for construction of schools and other essential public facilities should be based on a detailed assessment of the natural threat from disasters.

I therefore request you to issue necessary directions to all concerned to ensure compliance with the above directions of Hon'ble Prime Minister.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,
